

UNDERSTANDING SFIA

The Official SFIA Course

Understanding SFIA

The one-day course "Understanding SFIA" has been developed for people intending to implement SFIA, and for people intending to provide consultancy around SFIA.

Information about the course and how to book may be found elsewhere on the SFIA web site.

<http://www.sfia.org.uk/cgi-bin/wms.pl/680>

Dates

The schedule of courses for 2010 is as follows. More dates will be announced if required.

Tuesday	23 rd March
Tuesday	20 th April
Tuesday	18 th May
Tuesday	22 nd June
Tuesday	20 th July
	No course in August
Tuesday	21 st September
Tuesday	19 th October
Tuesday	16 th November
	December - tbc

Courses start at 10 am (arrive at 9:30 for coffee), and normally finish at 4:15 pm.

Location

Unless otherwise stated, courses are run at the Training Room Company, in the Old Leather Market near London Bridge

The Leather Market is about a ten minute walk from London Bridge Station.

Organisations needing several people trained may prefer to have a course run on their own premises. Enquiries about this should be directed to the same address as for normal course bookings.

Please see the web page referred to above.

Joining instructions

Full joining instructions are sent to people who book on the course. These are sent out not less than two weeks before the course.